MERCHANTS

Merchants are displayed in what building they are in. There is also an owner along with a possible list of items one may obtain from them. Merchants will indicate how much gold is stored somewhere in the vicinity. This gold can be referenced for possible theft, or simply how much they can possibly negotiate with if characters attempt to sell items. Some items have an "In Stock" value. This number is how many, of that item, the merchant will have restocked every month. If only "3" of an item are available, and the characters buy all "3", then the merchant will not get another "3" until the next month.
